

Local News.

Miss Lucile Sheppard is visiting friends in Society H. H.

Miss Lizzielou Jones spent last week with relatives at Batesburg and Samaria.

Mr. John L. Addison is enjoying a fortnight's vacation taking in the Jamestown exposition.

Mrs. Emma Mobley, of Johnston, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. O. Sheppard.

Mrs. Wayne Darlington has joined Mr. Darlington in Philadelphia but will return to Edgefield in a few days.

Miss Earline Allen returned on Saturday after spending ten days very pleasantly with relatives in Batesburg.

Rev. Royal Shannonhouse, rector of the Episcopal church, is spending his month's vacation in the mountains.

Mrs. B. R. Tillman, Jr., and Mrs. Wallace Sheppard were among the visitors to Augusta on Friday last.

Misses Irma and Ethel Black, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Black of Bamberg, are guests of Col. and Mrs. F. N. K. Bailey.

Mrs. A. E. Padgett, accompanied by the little ones, is spending this week at the home of her father, Mr. E. S. Reynolds.

Miss Pauline Byrd instead of Miss Janie Byrd, as we announced last week, has been engaged to teach the Limestone school next session. We were incorrectly informed.

Misses Rosa and Azolee Gantt, of Wagoner, S. C., are guests of their aunt, Mrs. N. M. Jones. Miss Rosa made many friends in Edgefield while on a visit last summer.

The trustees of the Brunson school have elected Miss Wardlaw, of Abbeville, as principal for next session. Miss Wardlaw is a graduate of Due West Female college and comes well recommended.

Mrs. E. J. Mims who recently underwent a surgical operation in Baltimore is doing nicely and will be able to come home in about two weeks. Mr. Mims returned on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Adams are sojourning at Hillman, Ga., for a few weeks. While Mrs. Adams is drinking the mineral water and taking the electric treatment, Mr. Adams will fish and squirrel hunt.

Messrs. John and Albert Kemp attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. William Ouzts, which was held at Mountain Creek church on Tuesday. Before her marriage Mrs. Ouzts was Miss Schenk, a sister of Mr. J. N. Schenk.

Mrs. M. D. Lyon has shared the bonities of her garden with us. On Monday afternoon this generous lady brought us some large, golden tomatoes that have been thoroughly enjoyed by The Advertiser household.

A large delegation of ladies left Edgefield yesterday afternoon for Bold Spring to attend the missionary union. They spent last night at the elegant and very hospitable homes of Dr. J. H. Self and Hon. W. A. Strom.

Mr. W. W. Ramsey, the senior member of the firm of Ramsey & Jones, has been up on business for several days. Mr. Ramsey is a large commission merchant of Augusta, being a member of the firm of Ramsey & Legwen.

The Oil Mill will charge for ginning cotton this season one dollar per bale for 400 pounds or less; and 25 cents per 100 pounds where the bale weighs over 400 pounds. Take your cotton to the oil mill and get good turnout and prompt attention.

Mr. S. T. Williams was in town on Monday and gave us a very interesting account of the trip which he recently took with Mr. John M. Mays and Mr. W. A. Reynolds. His description of some of the exposition sights will make you want to board the next train for Jamestown.

PRESCRIPTIONS our specialty. We solicit your Prescriptions, day or night.

WE GUARANTEE pure drugs, accurate compounding, and reasonable prices.

W. E. LYNCH & CO.

Dr. and Mrs. Kibler from Columbia have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Merritt for several days. Mrs. Kibler was a Miss Griffith, a sister of Mrs. Merritt. Although a young man, Dr. Kibler is rapidly winning renown in his profession as a specialist of the eye and ear.

Better put your chickens in a coop. The Advertiser heard a conversation between two long-headed old roosters a day or two ago, and the gist of it was that everything that belongs to the feathered tribe in and around Edgefield is planning to take to the woods or woods on Monday next and remain until after the meeting of the association.

We have a full assortment of the celebrated Hawkes' Spectacles and Eye-Glasses. They have been sold in Edgefield for more than twenty years and everybody knows what they are.

B. Timmons.

Mr. T. B. Lauham has resigned as county Y. M. C. A. secretary at Harrodsburg, Ky., to accept a similar position at Medina, Ohio, which is only about thirty miles from Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Dunovant are receiving the hearty congratulations of their friends over the arrival of a beautiful little daughter at their home.

Mr. Preston Ivey, the Western Union operator located at Edgefield, has requested us to state that his office is again open for business. Messages of all kind will henceforth be received and forwarded.

Miss Fannie Sheppard has returned after spending a month very pleasantly at Hendersonville, N. C. Miss Effie Sheppard and Mrs. J. D. Holstein will remain in the mountain city for several weeks yet.

Another little daughter, June Nicholson, brightens the home of Hon. and Mrs. B. E. Nicholson. May the God of Heaven lead this sweet little one to emulate the beautiful life of her lamented aunt whose name she bears.

Miss Lillie Strickland, a very beautiful young lady from Anderson, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. B. Halliwaenger. From Edgefield she will go to Dublin, Ga., to take charge of the music department of a large school at that place.

Mr. E. J. Norris some weeks ago bought out the Fire Insurance business of Mr. C. A. Griffin and this, with his large business before, will give him a splendid clientele all over his territory of "Thirty miles in all directions from Edgefield." So mote it be.

During the past twelve months a number of homes in the town have been made very beautiful by a generous application of paint. Among those painted recently are the homes of Maj. R. S. Anderson and Mr. W. B. Penn. There are scores of others in town that need a bright new coat of paint.

Entertained Beautifully.

Since the day of their arrival in Edgefield the Misses Speights, of Hendersonville, have received many delightful social attentions. Mrs. E. H. Folk, their aunt, entertained a number of young people very beautifully in their honor on Thursday evening last. The pizzas and beautiful yard were lighted with Japanese lanterns, in the soft light of which elegant refreshments were served to the large number of guests.

Annual Meeting of Commercial Club.

At the annual meeting of the Edgefield Commercial Club which was held in the rooms of the club on Monday evening the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: C. H. Fisher, president; B. Cantelou, vice-president; H. A. Smith, secretary; Dr. A. H. Corley, treasurer. The following were elected members of the board of directors: Dr. J. G. Tompkins, W. W. Adams, N. G. Evans, O. P. Bright and J. L. Mims. The executive committee is composed of C. H. Fisher, W. W. Adams and O. P. Bright.

Cotton Already King.

Cotton, cotton, cotton—everybody is talking cotton. And there is much guessing and speculation as to when the first bale will be brought to the Edgefield market. Mr. Herbert A. Smith, who will be one of the leading buyers during the coming season, says he is looking for one of the Broadwaters to bring in the first bale by Saturday. Mr. John Tompkins says the oil mill ginned its first bale last year on September the 1st, and that the first bale was ginned on August 24th year before last.

Baraca Class Entertained.

The elegant home of Mrs. J. H. Tillman presented a very brilliant and happy scene on Monday evening. Mrs. Tillman is the teacher of the Baraca class, the young men's class of the Baptist Sunday school, and on Monday evening she entertained the thirty odd young men and their lady friends and sweethearts most charmingly. Some of the young people tete-a-tete and others promenaded but all engaged in two very spirited and exciting contests.

The first was a "cat" contest. The young people were paired and a sheet of paper containing questions was given to each couple. The answers had to be supplied by words containing the word "cat," such as "catfish," "catnip," etc. The couple that won the first prize, a beautiful book, by furnishing the greatest number of correct answers was Miss Lena Stevens and Mr. John R. Tompkins. (Don't tell on "Uncle" John when Mrs. Tompkins returns.) Miss Vernor Halliwaenger and Mr. James Hilton won the second prize, a box of peanuts.

Next came a progressive peanut juggling contest. Each contestant would thrust a long, very sharp hat pin in a box of shelled peanuts, passing from one table to another, and the couple sticking the most peanuts being pronounced the winners. Miss Kate Pattison and Mr. John Sheppard being adepts in the art of wielding the hat pin, won the first prize, which was a beautiful hand painted picture. The consolation prize fell to the lot of Miss Marie Tompkins and Mr. Sheppard Jones.

The last contest, the grand finale, and one in which all present evinced surpassing skill, was the partaking of the very delightful refreshments that the hostess had thoughtfully prepared. In this contest seventy odd first prizes and not a single "booby" should have been awarded.

The Edgefield Delegates.

Having a membership of 305, the Edgefield Baptist church is entitled to a representation of eight delegates at the Association. The following have been appointed: O. Sheppard, R. H. Mims, F. N. K. Bailey, A. S. Tompkins, T. G. Talbert, H. W. Doby, W. A. Hart, B. B. Jones. The alternates are W. H. Harling, J. H. May and J. L. Mims.

Would Blossom as the Rose.

A farmer who does not reside many miles from Edgefield told the writer a few days ago that from each plow on his place he sells every year eight bales of cotton, 100 bushels of corn, $50 worth of hogs and about $50 worth of hay. This is an excellent showing, and we believe every word of it, for this gentleman is not given to blowing his own horn. Just think, if the farmers of the county would do half so well year after year old Edgefield would blossom as the rose from one end of the county to the other.

Fineest on Record.

Fine cotton is nothing unusual this year. A bale-to-the-acre field can be seen at every bend in the road. But Mr. John Tompkins has some cotton that's just a bit too fine for its own good. A cow broke from the lot a few nights ago and, while roaming in the moonlight, chanced to get in Mr. Tompkins' field. In some way, the cow's chain or rope or tail became so entangled in a giant stalk of cotton that she was forced to spend the night in the centre of Mr. Tompkins' brag patch. We have often heard of cotton that would hide a man, but when it comes to cotton, one stalk of which can hold a cow, Mr. Tompkins takes the cake.

Good Melon Year.

The melon crop has been unusually fine this year throughout Carolina and Georgia. During the past forty days something like 85 cars of watermelons have been shipped from the little town of Blythe, Ga., netting the growers about $65 per car. Some very fine melons have been grown in this county, but for the largest melon Newberry bears off the honors. A farmer in Newberry county grew one 88-pound watermelon and several that weighed 80 pounds. In the matter of superior quality and delicacy of flavor, Edgefield melons hold first place.

Looks Mighty "Spicious."

Mr. Beauregard Timmons incidentally remarked to The Advertiser man a few days ago that he had sold Mr. Bettis Cantelou a large bill of paint with which to paint his stately country mansion. Some young bachelors at times manifest a penchant for painting the town red but Mr. Cantelou is going to paint everything white even down to his fowl house. Wonder why our young friend was so suddenly seized with painting fever? Is it because his fine coat will net him so much cash that he cannot otherwise spend it, or is something else back of it all?

Blocker Road Being Worked.

Supervisor Self informed us on Monday that he is ready to begin work on the Blocker road, which leads from Dr. Parker's late home up by Pleasant Lane. The Ninety Six road has been put in apple-pie order. Two of the largest and steepest hills have been partially graded down which will make it easier to draw heavy loads over that road. It is the Supervisor's purpose to put the Blocker road in equally as good condition. The other change is down at Ropers working this way. At an early day all of the roads leading to the county seat—which roads are traveled more than any other in the county—will be in a first-class condition.

Mr. Ezekiah Coleman.

Be it said to the shame and discredit of the State, that for twelve years a Confederate veteran, Mr. Ezekiah Coleman, has been an inmate of the County Home. For many years he was a paralytic but death came one day last week and relieved him of further suffering, discomfort and humiliation. Those who have visited the County Home have been impressed with Mr. Coleman's intelligence and cheerful, sunny disposition. He read everything he could lay his hands upon and was reasonably well informed upon the topics of the day. Mr. Coleman was a native of Abbeville county. His body was interred in the burial ground on the county farm.

Association Committees.

Dr. C. E. Burts, who was empowered at a recent conference of the Baptist church to appoint at his leisure the necessary committees to arrange for the entertainment of the Association has made the following appointments: Committee on Hospitality: Mr. W. B. Corburn, chairman, A. E. Padgett, N. M. Jones, C. E. May, J. L. Mims, J. W. Peak, Mrs. J. H. Tillman, Mrs. A. L. Barker, Mrs. W. B. Corburn, Miss Genie Brunson, Miss Virginia Addison and Miss Jennie Pattison. Committee on Grounds and Serving Refreshments: Mr. W. E. Lott, chairman, J. H. Reel, D. B. Hollingsworth, J. H. P. Roper, L. B. Jones, E. J. Norris, Mrs. Ella Tompkins, Mrs. A. E. Padgett, Mrs. Mauly Timmons and Miss Eliza Mims.

When in need of Turnip Seed don't forget that Penn handles all varieties of Buist's seeds Improved Yellow Ruta Baga, Aberdeen, Yellow Globe, Golden Ball, Flat Dutch and Seven Top, fresh from Buist's garden.

Nestors of the Association.

Come to the Edgefield Association and help by your presence and prayers to make this grand centennial occasion a success. It is worth riding one hundred miles to sit at the feet of those fathers in Israel, Rev. J. P. Mealing, Dr. L. R. Gwaltney, Dr. T. M. Bailey and Dr. W. E. Hatcher, for three days.

Endorsement From Alabama.

Mr. Robert G. Patrick, president of Judson College, Marion, Ala., writes as follows concerning Miss Louise Couch as a musician: "Miss Louise Couch has taught Piano and Violin in the Judson during the present session and I take pleasure in saying that her work as a teacher has given satisfaction. She came to us highly commended in every way and our expectations have been fully realized. It is a matter of regret to me that Miss Couch has decided to give up her position with me."

Beloved Dr. Gwaltney Coming.

The approaching centennial session of the association has many measures in store for the people of Edgefield, but of the many anticipations there is not one that affords more pleasure than the coming of Dr. L. R. Gwaltney. In less than a week he will be with us, and besides participating in the deliberations of the association, he will doubtless conduct the services in the Baptist church for one or two Sundays. Dr. Gwaltney can not remain in Edgefield long and it is his purpose, we are informed, to go from here to his old home in Virginia for a visit. A whole month would be necessary for him to visit all of his Edgefield friends.

Exceedingly Encouraging Outlook.

President F. N. K. Bailey informed The Advertiser's representative a few days ago that he has never since he founded his school been more encouraged than he is over the outlook for the session of 1907-08. He took a trip recently in the lower counties of the state and secured seventeen students in ten days. He is also more careful in receiving students now than formerly, only soliciting from homes in which children have been properly trained. Owing to this precaution, his student body is composed of ambitious young men and young ladies who deport themselves properly. The people of Edgefield congratulate and rejoice with Col. Bailey over his successes.

Commendable Zeal and Enthusiasm.

Our friend Mr. M. B. Sturkey, a highly esteemed citizen of Plum Branch, is a man who throws his whole being into a cause or movement when he becomes interested, and is willing to make any personal or financial sacrifice in order to accomplish the desired end. Twice he has come through the heat of a mid-summer day to Edgefield in the interest of a trolley from this place to Plum Branch and for his interest in the public weal, his zeal, enthusiasm and perseverance, Mr. Sturkey is being very generally commended. If there were a few more men as greatly interested as Mr. Sturkey and as willing to make as great sacrifice as he, there would be constructed beyond any shadow of doubt.

Endorsement From North Carolina.

Miss Lula Tisdale, who is to teach vocal music and elocution in the college during the approaching session, has received the following very strong endorsement from Mr. Wingate Underhill, principal of Castalia Academy, Castalia, N. C.: "I take great pleasure in recommending Miss Lula Tisdale. She has had the best of Christian influence from childhood. Consequently we have in her a happy union of culture, ability and sterling Christian character. Furthermore, she wins the love and admiration of her pupils in the beginning. I take pleasure in bearing testimony to the ability and success of Miss Tisdale as a teacher of music. Her work has given entire satisfaction. Every one speaks of her in highest terms of praise. Furthermore, I have known Miss Tisdale from childhood, and I cheerfully commend her to those who desire a competent teacher of music."

Prompt Payment.

Edgefield, S. C., Aug. 24th, 1907. E. J. Norris, Esq. Dear Sir: I want to acknowledge with thanks check in full $950.00 for my losses by fire, of one of my large barns and contents, just thirty days ago. Now that you have bought out Mr. Griffin's Fire Insurance business I hope you will be kept busy the coming fall and winter, in your well regulated Fire Insurance office. Thanks. Jas. R. Cantelou.

Principal of Zoar High School.

Prof. T. E. Dorn was in Edgefield on Saturday and paid The Advertiser a very pleasant visit. He has been principal of the Zoar High School in Saluda county for seven years. During that time he has had flattering offers from large, wide-awake towns but he refused them all to remain with the good people of the Zoar section. They appreciate the very efficient work of Prof. Dorn, having steadily increased his salary, and are now erecting larger and more commodious buildings for the accommodation of his growing school. In training the young people that are under him, Prof. Dorn does not overlook their religious life. A prayermeeting is conducted in the school once each week. This active, energetic, ambitious young man has been of incalculable benefit to the people in the portion of Saluda county where he teaches, and we bid him God-speed in his work. Prof. Dorn is one of the many graduates of the S. C. C. I. who are reflecting honor upon their alma mater.

Next Week's Menu.

Edgefield will be overflowing next week with visitors and delegates who will come to attend the centennial session of the Edgefield association but she is going to receive them with open hearts and arms and treat them royally. The best that the land affords will be placed before them. We hear that Dr. Timmons has ordered three lambs from the country—Mrs. N. M. Jones has two big coops of fine chickens—Mrs. Ida Stevens will have several barrels of good old Meeting Street coffee—Mr. D. B. Hollingsworth has a fine young stall-fed beef—Mr. James Cantelou and Mr. Jack Reel have the sweet home-raised hams—Mr. W. T. Kinnaird several coils of juicy Rhode Island Red—Mrs. J. H. Tillman six tubs of ice tea—Mrs. James A. Holland seven bushels of sliced tomatoes and like quantity of potato salad—Mrs. J. W. Peak a pyramid each of silver and gold and layer cakes—Mrs. Abner Broadwater fourteen jars of delightful home-made pickles—Dr. Burtis a ninety pound roast each day—Mrs. W. B. Corburn three large baskets each of lemon and potato custards—Mrs. A. E. Padgett seventeen delightful chocolate cakes. Mrs. J. L. Mims has been saving up eggs and butter for six months for the association.

There are scores and scores of other contributions that we might mention but the foregoing will suffice to give a glimpse of the Association menu.

NOTICE.

For the present, our appointments as organizers for the Southern Cotton Association are hereby recalled, and no further meetings will be held, except by special arrangement.

Letter to Prof. Bailey.

Edgefield, S. C. Dear Sir: We should like to set your boys and girls at work on this question in arithmetic and causality. A farmer is fattening three hogs in three small pens; they have equal room and straw and care, and are fed in these three ways: first hog, on a certain proportion of milk and cooked cornmeal; second hog, on the same, half water; third hog, on the same, half water and sawdust. How long will it take, how much will they weigh, how much will they cost, and what'll the profit be on the three? And a similar question in pigmen-try. That same farmer is going to paint three barns same size; and he says to three painters: "what'll you take to paint that barn?" First painter scratches his head a few minutes and says: "I'll do it for $20." Second painter $75. Third painter $97.48. Will they each get a barn to paint, or one get two, or one all three, or nobody any, and what'll they make on the job? That's about how painting goes. But there is a way to reckon: $5 a gallon. The difficulty is in knowing how many gallons to buy. There's a way out of that. Buy the least-gallons paint, Devoe. No matter how much one buys; he returns what's left: costs nothing. Yours truly F. W. DEVORE & CO. Edgefield Mercantile Co.

Improve Your Eye-sight.

On August 29th, 30th and 31st a very skilled optician sent out by the manufacturers of the celebrated Hawkes' eye glasses and spectacles will be at my store. He can test your eyes and fit such glasses to them as you need. Come on either of the above dates and let him fit you with glasses. B. Timmons.

Tailor Opening.

We will have with us September 3rd and 4th Mr. Vance of the celebrated Traymore Tailoring Company making clothes to measure only. We ask our friends and patrons to call and examine the line and give us an order for their fall suit.

Our guarantee of satisfaction with each suit. Respectfully, The Corner Store.

Why order Lace Curtains from a catalog house or a city store? We can save you money. An inspection of our large stock is all we ask. Edgefield Mercantile Co.

Sweet Little Ruth Samuel.

The deepest sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Samuel in this hour of bereavement—in the death of their little daughter which occurred in the early hours of Sunday morning. Little Ruth was spared to her fond parents only thirteen months, when she was taken by Him who holds the darling little ones as the very apple of his eye. This little child being delicate had been a constant sufferer, and through much anxiety and patient ministering, the affections of the devoted parents had grown stronger and stronger, which made the separation all the more painful to them. While their little daughter has been taken, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel have a strong and very promising little son left to brighten and bless their home.

Mr. Samuel M. Smith.

In the Harmony cemetery there is a newly made grave, where lies entombed the mortal body of Mr. Samuel M. Smith. He passed away at his home on Monday morning after a prolonged illness of more than twelve months. For twenty consecutive weeks he was confined to his bed but he bore it all with a marked degree of patience and fortitude. The death of Mr. Smith causes a breach in the ranks of the citizenship of Edgefield county that cannot be easily filled. He was a man of great decision and firmness, always ready and willing to take a stand for those things that contributed to the best interests of his community and the county at large. And not only was he prominent in secular affairs, but in his church also. By precept and example, daily walk and conversation, he pointed those about him to the Saviour whom he served so faithfully.

Mr. Smith had reached his seventy-third year at the time of his death, and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. W. G. Ouzts, Mrs. M. M. Padgett, and one son, Mr. D. C. Smith, of Saluda.

Negro Killed at Church.

A great crowd of colored people congregated at Willow Spring, a negro church one mile north of Meeting Street, on last Sunday, the beginning of the annual protracted meeting. During the dinner hour some young negroes who were drinking became involved in a general row which resulted in the killing of John Mathis. Magistrate A. C. Ouzts held the inquest, and the jury's verdict was to the effect that the deceased came to his death through a gunshot wound at the hands of John McKinny, William McKinny or Luther McKinny. No arrests have been made so far. The accused parties reside near Johnston.

Sixteen Reasons

Why you should send your Sons and Daughters to the South Carolina Co-Educational Institute S. C. C. I.

- 1 Because only a limited number of students are taken, thereby making it possible for each student to receive the personal attention of the faculty.
- 2 Edgefield is noted for its health—being situated in a high, dry, rolling country.
- 3 Handsome new brick buildings with modern improvements and upto date equipments.
- 4 Extensive grounds—beautiful oak grove—ideal surroundings.
- 5 Highly cultured, Christian men and women compose the Faculty—fourteen teachers, each a specialist.
- 6 Greatest care used in selecting teachers whose personal influence over the students will be elevating.
- 7 The President and twelve teachers live in the building with the students.
- 8 From the time students reach Edgefield until they take the train for their homes, they are under the watchful care and close personal attention of the President and Faculty.
- 9 Regular study hours morning, afternoon and night under the direct supervision of the teachers.
- 10 High Standard—Thorough Course of Study—our work bears close inspection.
- 11 In competitive examinations for West Point, Annapolis and other scholarships, our students have always been eminently successful.
- 12 On account of our thorough
